

Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery

Free exhibition talks and tours

September 2015

Tours are available from Wednesday to Sunday and specialty group tours can be arranged on request.

Time: 11:00 am

Duration: approximately 30 minutes

Meeting point: Central Gallery

Private Secretary's Cottage

Among TMAG's extraordinary collection of artefacts is the Private Secretary's Cottage which sits at the centre of the museum site and provides an above-ground archaeological record of the state's earliest years.

Tour dates: Wednesday 2, Wednesday 9 and Wednesday 30 September

Remembering Mouquet Farm

Mouquet Farm was a strategically important location during the battles around the Somme in north-eastern France in 1916. Many Tasmanians were involved in these battles; come and hear some of their stories with one of TMAG's curators.

Tour date: Thursday 3 September

Where Have All The Tigers Gone?

Meet TMAG's zoology curator and find out how more than 400 Tasmanian tigers (Thylacines) ended up in museums around the world.

Tour date: Thursday 10 September

Special meeting point: Thylacine gallery

What Does It Mean? Why Is It Here?

Wander through TMAG's current exhibitions with an art guide and chat about ways of appreciating the objects on display - especially those works you don't respond to or understand at first glance. From 25 September the focus of these tours will be on the 2015 City of Hobart Art Prize Exhibition, which this year features ceramics and drawing.

Tour dates: Every Friday, Saturday and Sunday (4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20, 25, 26 and 27 September)

City Of Hobart Art Prize

Join TMAG's decorative arts curator for one judge's insight into this important acquisitive art competition.

Tour date: Wednesday 23 September
