

Remembering the Thylacine

The last known Tasmanian tiger died in the Hobart Zoo on 7 September 1936. National Threatened Species Day is an annual reminder of the extinction of the thylacine. Join a short tour of the Thylacine Gallery to find out more.

- 📍 Meet at the Ocean of Life display in the Central Gallery
- 🕒 Every half hour from 10:00 am until 1:30 pm
- 🕒 15 minutes

Hide and SEAk Trail

Follow the clues to find four threatened marine and coastal species across the TMAG galleries. You can submit your completed entry for a chance to win a TMAG prize.

- 📍 Collect your trail sheet from the Ocean of Life display in the Central Gallery
- 🕒 10:00 am – 3:00 pm
- 🕒 15 to 30 minutes, self-guided

Threatened Species

Sunday, 8 September 2019
10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Free admission
Dunn Place, Hobart

TASMANIAN
MUSEUM &
ART GALLERY

 Sunday, 8 September
 10:00 am – 3:00 pm

DISCOVERY DAY

Come and commemorate National Threatened Species Day - our annual opportunity to renew our efforts to protect species from extinction - at TMAG! It's also the final day of SeaWeek, which encourages everyone in the community to understand and appreciate the sea.

Discovery Days at TMAG provide an opportunity for families and visitors of all ages to enjoy a Sunday of interactive activities and special interest sessions.

Extinction Studies

Watch artist Lucienne Rickard working in this year-long, pop-up studio. Lucienne will be drawing an animal threatened by extinction, most days, for a whole year. At the end of each day she will erase the drawing. The artist welcomes questions and comments.

 Link Foyer

 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

 Drop-in any time

This project has been generously supported by Detached Cultural Organisation

Drawing Attention

Come to the art studio and help draw some of the remarkable plants and animals that currently face threats to their survival. Learn fascinating facts while you create.

 Centre for Learning and Discovery, Large Room

 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

 Drop-in any time

Whale Rescue

Tasmania is a hotspot for whale strandings. Join a Discovery Ranger from the Parks and Wildlife Service to understand how to assist stranded marine mammals and practise your skills with a life-size, inflatable whale.

 Courtyard

 10:00 am, 11:00 am, 12:00 pm and 1:30 pm

 Approximately 45 minutes each session

Ocean of Life

From vulnerable seastars to endangered albatross, and from vanishing kelp forests to shrinking saltmarshes, join a museum educator to discover more about Tasmania's threatened marine and coastal wildlife and habitats.

 Central Gallery

 10:00 am – 3:00 pm

 Drop-in any time

Sign up for our TMAG e-newsletter and receive information about Discovery Days and our School Holiday program in advance.

Visit: www.tmag.tas.gov.au/enews

(03) 6165 7000
Dunn Place, Hobart