
Teacher Professional Enrichment 2015

Storytelling Workshop

The Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery's (TMAG) Professional Enrichment series continues with this unique session.

Wednesday
5 August 2015

Sam Routledge
Artistic Director
Terrapin Puppet Theatre

Join Sam and TMAG staff at the museum to find out how you can use storytelling to enliven your students' learning.

Sam will guide participants through processes to harness the power of storytelling with inanimate objects.

Drawing upon years of experience, Sam's fun workshop will help participants see the hidden life in an object and he will demonstrate techniques to help students discover this life for themselves.

Using the museum's exhibitions, this workshop will have many practical applications for teachers bringing their classes to TMAG or those using storytelling to bring any subject to life.
