Learning and Discovery Artist in Residence

Selena de Carvalho

6 January – 1 February 2015

Selena de Carvalho is the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery's 2015 Learning and Discovery Artist in Residence throughout January. Help develop the next phase of her exciting project 'The Evolutionary Straitjacket' which responds to species extinction through playful karaoke performances, dazzling costumes, masks, pop songs and more.

All ages welcome, children and families especially.

See the program to discover how you can take part in the creative process over the month, and follow online at <http://instagram.com/tasmuseum>.

Open Studio

Drop-in on Selena as she works in the studio. See where the project's at today, and contribute your ideas and more.

Days:
Every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday (except 17-23 January)

Time:
10:00 am – 1:00 pm

School Holiday Workshops

Free, drop-in workshops for children and families. Join Selena to design and create totemic costumes and masks inspired by threatened and extinct species.

Dates:
Tuesday 20 – Friday 23 January

Time:
11:00 am – 2:00 pm

Karaoke Performances

Your chance to become part of the art work! Step into one of Selena's spectacular costumes and join her in the karaoke booth to embody an extinct creature for the time it takes to belt out a pop song about strength and survival. Each performance is photographed for an online archive. An unforgettable, enjoyable experience for all ages.

Sessions:
Thursday 8 January 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Friday 16 January 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Saturday 24 January 11:00 am – 1:00 pm

Sunday 1 February 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Masterclass For Peers

In this free, energising professional learning session Selena will share her approach to participatory art making and reflect on her residency at TMAG. Of relevance to artists, arts workers, educators, carers and more wanting to bring open-ended creativity into their work with children and the general public. Includes practical activities and discussion, and refreshments provided.

Date:
Saturday 31 January

Time:
3:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Bookings essential:
Please email TMAG.Bookings@tmag.tas.gov.au
