

Artist unknown

Mr Charles Dickens' last reading

1870

etching, ink on paper

London: The Illustrated London
News, 19 March 1870

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WELLS

A Real Merman and Merman Caught Alive

1887

advertising bill, ink on paper

Surrey Zoological Gardens
Lambeth: Phoenix Printing Office,
c.1887

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WILST

James Godby, active 1798–1812

The Mermaid after the mould from nature

1814

etching

London: L Gahagan, 1814

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WELLST

Artist unknown

The wonder of the sea: The Gymnetrus Northumbricus, or sea-serpent

c.1850

poster, ink on paper

London: Cosmorama Rooms,
c.1850

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WELLCOMETRUST

Town Hall Assembly Rooms,
Blackburn

The original and celebrated General
Tom Thumb

1859

advertising bill, ink on paper

Manchester: Kiernan and Son, 1859

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WILST

William Hogarth (1697–1764)

Gin Lane, St Giles, London

c.1751

engraving

Published according to Act of Parliament, Feb 1754

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

W W I S T

Theatre Royal, Drury Lane Poster

1830–1860

advertising bill, ink on paper

London: Theatre Royal, Drury
Lane, 1830–1860

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WILST

CJ Van Houten (1828–)

Van Houten's cocoa:
best goes farthest...
Bumble

c.1890s

advertising bill, ink on paper

Weesp, Holland: CJ Van Houten &
Zoon: c.1890s

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

W W I S T

Artist unknown

Nath Longbottom, sells skeletons of
different sizes

1700–1799

advertising leaflet, ink on paper

London: Nathaniel Longbottom,
1700–1799

Wellcome Collection

Public Domain Mark

WELLCOMETRUST

George Cruikshank
(1792–1878)

The Piccadilly Nuisance: dedicated to the worthy Acting Magistrate of the district, 1835
Cruikshankiana
portfolio, 1835

printing ink on paper

Presented by an anonymous
donor, 2021

AG9041.19

WILST